

Our Rights Y2

Who Has Helped Influence Our Rights?

History: Rosa Parks

I know the historical chronological order of the following: The great fire of London, Victorians, Rosa Parks (1950s).

I know how to use common historical words about the passing of time for periods learned in Y1 and Rosa Parks.

I know who Rosa Parks was.

I know some important events from Rosa Parks life and can order them.

I know how life in the 1950s was different from today.

Using Rosa Parks story, I can answer questions about the reasons for her actions.

I know what happened in Rosa Parks's life has influenced changes and our lives for the better.

I know we can find out about the past from a range of sources – books, newspapers, diaries, videos, pictures

Art: Feelings and moods: Sketch of Rosa Parks with shade of colour.

I know how the artists Picasso and Van Gogh use their art to express their feelings and moods.

I know how to talk about their art and say what I like about it.

I know about colour Picasso used in his art and why (blue period).

I know how to represent my feelings using colour: yellow - happy, blue – sad

I know how to mix paint to create different shades – lighter/darker

I know how to sketch an image of Rosa Parks and use colour to represent her feelings.

I know how to talk about my painting - what I like about it; what I can improve next time.

Vocab

History - Rosa Parks, seamstress, equal rights, segregation, boycott, bus, bus driver, Non-violent protest, Mr. Nixon, Martin Luther King

Art – mood, feeling, colour, mixing, shades, layering, hue, Primary and Secondary colours, darker, lighter, sketch, blending, evaluate

Computing: Research

I know how to enter given text into a search engine to find specific given web sites

I know the website address start with www. And this stand for world wide web.

I know how to ask questions about a specific topic and can find answer those questions on a given website.

I know how to navigate a given website using hyperlinks and menu buttons to locate the answers to given

I know how to copy and paste.

I know that some information does not answer my question.

I know we can get answers to questions from text, images, sound or videos.

I know how to locate links to web sites from Favourites or saved hyperlinks.

I know the internet holds a lot of information and you can use a search engine to find things